Hamilton, Bermuda: The Association of Bermuda Insurers and Reinsurers (ABIR) has promoted Leila Madeiros to the position of Senior Vice President and Corporate Secretary.

ABIR is based in Hamilton and is a trade association representing 23 Class 4 global insurers and reinsurers operating in Bermuda. ABIR represents its members on insurance and regulatory matters in Bermuda, the United States, the European Union and in front of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors.

Ms. Madeiros joined the association in 2006 and was previously promoted to the position of Vice President in 2007. She manages ABIR's policy development work related to Bermuda's efforts to ensure that the BMA's regulatory regime is equivalent to international standards. She is also Corporate Secretary for the organization and that involves her in every aspect of the Association's work including corporate organization, government and industry relations and financial management. She also leads the association's outreach to the Bermuda community helping to encourage Bermudians interested in employment in the international insurance sector.

"Leila is an exceptional employee. As a former insurance regulator and a former company executive, she understands the promise and problems associated with insurance regulation. She's a true leader with her knowledge and insight about insurance regulation in Bermuda specifically and about the goals of international regulatory cooperation and standard setting," noted Brad Kading, ABIR's president and executive director. "She's a tireless worker and ABIR benefits enormously from her service to our members. With life and work experience in Bermuda, Brazil, the United Kingdom and the United States she's a role model for other Bermudians seeking work in our global insurance business," Kading added.

Leila was born and raised in Bermuda. She is a graduate of Warwick Academy; has a BA in Business from Cedarville University; and a MA in Management from Webster University. Her parents are John and Mary Perry. She is married to Jeremy Madeiros and they have two children, Seth and Elizabeth.
